PLAYER COMMENTS

Dan: This suit is genuinely unbeatable on any factor apart from price in my eyes. It looks great, the cuffs work brilliantly, the material gets rid of water almost instantly, the size options in the trousers are comprehensive and the overall look is excellent. Above all, it's functional – Galvin suits are designed to play golf in.

James: It is a little bit noisy for my liking, but you can move freely in it and with a name like Galvin Green you know you are on to a winner when it comes to being durable and reliable.

Joe: Before this test I always turned my nose up a little at Galvin Green. Charging so much for a suit never sat well with me, but now I have tried it for myself and seen the results, I'm a convert. I couldn't get over just how well it did even after a real drenching. I would prefer it to fit a little tighter and perhaps stretch, but when it comes to performance I don't have a bad word to say.

TRADITIONAL LOOKS AND TOP PERFORMANCE

PLAYER COMMENTS

Dan: The look is traditional, but the cut is still good so overall this is a superb all-round suit. You don't get lots of excess material and it clearly deals with the water with little difficulty. If you're an experienced, serious player looking for performance and fit but without gaudy, bright colours, this is the suit for you. And I think it's a suit (and brand) you can trust.

Joe: I'll be honest – this is not really the suit for me in terms of looks, I'd want something more modern. But I was surprised – it was fine to swing in and the water fell off it as well as anything. I agree with Dan – there can't be many waterproofs better suited to those with traditional tastes.

James: Very smart but in a traditional sense, which I like. This is the ideal alternative to Swedish styles – although it is not exactly fashionable, it is very reliable.
