

Galvin Green Best Software Supplier 2011 in Norway and the Netherlands

Golfstore shops in Norway and the Netherlands has voted Galvin Green Best Software Supplier 2011. In Sweden and Denmark Galvin Green reached an honorable second place in the same evaluation.

In the survey, Golfstore members rated their suppliers and brands in nine different categories including product range, quality, demand, profitability and complaints. The results show that Galvin Green stands up to the competition very well in all categories, and further reinforce the brand's position as a leading golf wear manufacturer.

"Repeated top rankings in various tests and evaluations show that our long-term focus on quality is a success. It is satisfying to see that our efforts are bearing fruit, all the way down to the retailers and the consumers, comments Daniel Ericsson, Galvin Green Sales Manager in northern Europe."
